Circular Letter No. 14
September 10, 1908

To Supervising Principals.

Gentlemen:-

(Paragraph thirteen)

When a teacher is absent the day before or the day after a holiday which occurs within a school work he loses pay for the holiday also and should be so reported. All absences will be deducted as reported, but will be reviewed and pay may be allowed at the end of the year or at the end of the teachers' service. School Boards were notified of this and told to call attention of the teachers to the fact when contracts were signed.

Yours very truly,

The Commissioner of Education
